In Goethe's time, for most people it was not easy to “switch off for a few moments” and travellers carried an aura of luxury and adventure. Nowadays, holidays have been a routine thing for a long time. Do you find that a shame? Use your free time for something special once more! Surrounded by the charm of by-gone ages, at Hotel Sonnenhof you will enjoy carefree days of peace and tranquility against the backdrop of one of Europe's most beautiful spa towns. Immerse yourself in the elegant flair that was mentioned also by Goethe: “A splendour and harmony unknown to those in the north.”

“In happiness lies the seed
for continuing happiness.”

Isolated from the noise and frantic pace of everyday life, our hotel is located in an enchanting park in the most tranquil and exclusive neighbourhood of Merano. This park is among the most scenic and largest green spaces in the area. The old, magnificent trees move visitors into an almost nostalgic state of mind: you would not want to sit down and rest here, you just want to settle in; you would not want to take a walk, you just want to stroll along the grand promenade.

“The nature alone
is inexhaustible,
and capable of forming
the greatest masters.”

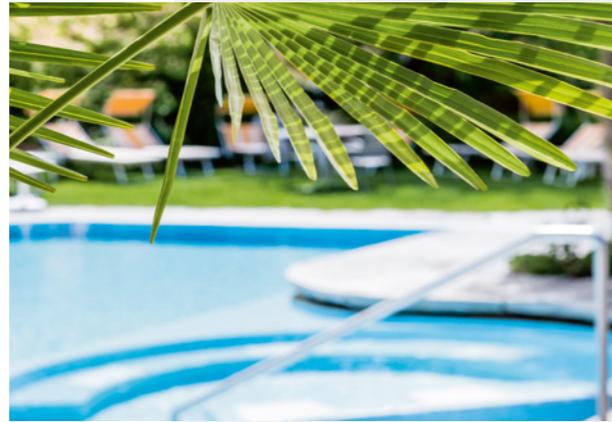

J. W. v. Goethe

First you would like to do something for your own well-being and after that relax in the midst of the mountains? Here are a few ideas: after a workout in the gym on the treadmill, cross trainer, exercise bike or recumbent bike, lie in our hot tub and simply relax. With a warm water temperature of 35°C, you will be spoiled all year round, whilst your close proximity to the surrounding nature will offer you a unique feeling of peace and freedom.

“The sun, himself,
he is of purest gold.”

J. W. v. Goethe

People have known about the soothing and stimulating powers of water for thousands of years. After only a few minutes in our beautiful pool, heated to a comfortable 29°C, the stress and hectic pace you came in with will simply dissolve. Plenty of comfortable sun loungers invite you to sit down and relax either before or after you go for a swim. Because one thing is certain: it does not matter whether you are sunbathing or swimming, you will simply leave your everyday cares behind.

“An easy mind can bear anything!”

J. W. v. Goethe

We admit, the term “wellness” probably did not mean much for Goethe, but man has always yearned for “good health”. Switch off in our spa facilities with a sensory shower, sauna, bio sauna, steam bath, hydro-massage tub or discover our gym. We want you to savour not only the memory, but also the well-earned rest when you return home, enjoying the sensation for as long as you can. Could there possibly be a more beautiful souvenir?

“True pleasure remains.”

— J. W. v. Goethe

When designing our dining room, the choice of backdrop for a taste of our culinary delights was instant: our splendid garden with a panorama of the Texel mountain range. Large panoramic windows give an uninterrupted view of the surrounding nature and make every mealtime twice as pleasurable. In the cosy, elegant ambience with country-style, real oak flooring and air-conditioning, we spoil our guests with regional delights of the highest quality.

“Beauty is everywhere
a welcome guest.”

————— J. W. v. Goethe

The day comes to an end in the stylish ambience of the Red Hall. Relax over a game of chess or backgammon, while away the hours of leisure with a good book or a glass of red wine. The Red Hall is also the perfect place for a pleasant conversation in total relaxation with old or new friends. Look forward to many other varied and relaxing holiday moments!

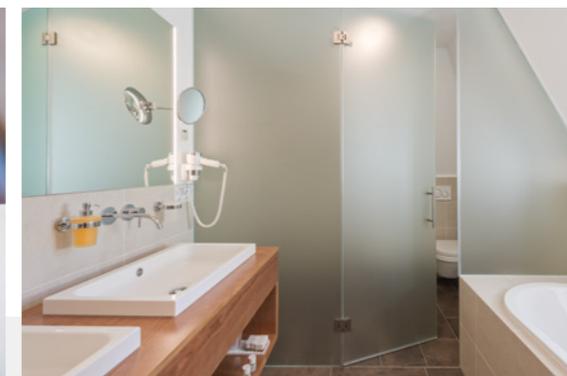

“The most beautiful shapes appeared in dreams.”

J. W. v. Goethe
